

I am requesting a review of communication tower & bird mortality issues; a research program funded by the communications industry to identify tower placement, design and lighting conditions; do an environmenal review on existing towers to access their placement & design & take measures to protect e.g., voluntary tower sitting & placement guidelines developed by the USFWS.